EMF Balancing Technique®

Co-create Your Most Enlightened Life!

For Spiritual Growth & Evolution

The Universal Calibration Lattice (UCL) is an electromagnetic system within the human energy anatomy composed of fibers of light and energy that surround each one of us. It is through this Divine circuitry that energetic information and wisdom is received. When the lattice is calibrated, strengthened, & balanced, the connection to higher, refined energies deepens and your innate ability to co-create improves.

The EMF (Electromagnetic Field) Balancing Technique® is an energy balancing system that works specifically with the UCL. It is designed to accelerate the integration of Spirit and biology in order to increase health and personal empowerment. EMF balancing releases excess electromagnetic energy to relieve stress and anxiety, enabling smooth transitions through life's growth processes. While the basic pattern of the UCL is universal, everyone's calibration is determined by the individual frequency of their own vibration, making each EMF Balancing Technique® experience unique in sensation and impact.

During an EMF Balancing Technique® session, specific energy patterns are traced through the lattice in circling movements. These patterns are the same for everyone but honor each person's individual essence. Healing is not the focus of the technique — balance is the intent during all EMF sessions.

Through balance, the individual is empowered to allow the body to return to its natural state of health. There are Four Phases to the technique that can be given in single one-hour sessions or in combinations.

The sessions are focused on release, calibration & balance.

We release blockages and restrictions while clearing the fibers and loops to facilitate graceful processing of energetic information and emotions.

We calibrate the UCL to strengthen and prepare our energy anatomy to hold an increasingly greater energetic charge.

And we balance in order to develop an energetic posture that enables us to walk graciously on our path while in direct connection with our higher, refined energies and the infinite source of wisdom and love.

Whether you want relaxation, clarity and profound peace or to feel balanced and grounded, you will come to understand your connection with the unlimited energy around you, and to begin to experience more of your own energy—the essence of who You really are.
